

The Broken Lamp

My mom got a gift from my Grandma.

It was a fancy lamp.

She really liked it.

My friend came over to play.

We were playing tag.

I ran into the table and broke the lamp.

My mom was upset. I was crying.

She came and gave me a big hug.

She told me she loves me so much she forgave my mistake. That is just like Jesus who loves and forgives no matter what.

Even when he was on the cross.
