High school students remember Raoul Wallenberg and the Power of One

Students from E.D. Feehan Catholic High School and Bedford Road Collegiate will take time to reflect on the Power of One as they celebrate and remember Raoul Wallenberg, a Swedish emissary and remarkable hero whose extraordinary efforts helped save tens of thousands of Hungarian Jews from sure death in the Holocaust.

When: Tuesday, February 7, 2017; 1:30 – 2:30 pm

Where: E.D. Feehan Catholic High School

411 Avenue M North

Elly Thorn, a local artist, will perform with the students and address the connection of the refugee community and the challenges that many faced to that of the Hungarian Jews forced to seek safety.

In attendance will be: Charlie Clark, Mayor of Saskatoon; David Arnot, Saskatchewan Human Rights Commissioner and current Citizen of the Year; Diane Boyko, Board Chair of Greater Saskatoon Catholic Schools; and Ray Morrison, Board Chair of Saskatoon Public Schools.
