Leah was raised on a farm outside of Elrose, Saskatchewan, the first of four children. She has a master's of arts in theology from the University of St. Michael's College at the Toronto School of Theology (2009) and a bachelor's of arts in English from Campion College at the University of Regina (2005).

Leah's first book How Far Can We Go? A Catholic Guide to Sex and Dating, was written with Brett Salkeld in 2009, and her second, Theology of the Body for Every Body, was published in 2012. She writes a biweekly column for the Prairie Messenger called "Barefoot & Preaching" which is also published on her website: www.leahperrault.com.

Leah and her husband, Marc, married in 2005, and are parents to three amazing little people so far... Robyn, Eliot and Charlize.

From 2007 to 2015, she served as the Director of Pastoral Services for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon. Leah Perrault accepted a new position as Executive Lead of Governance Continuance for Emmanuel Care (the Catholic Health Ministry of Saskatchewan) beginning in January of 2016.
