

Fun with our faith

Here's a fun way for children to review the Catholic faith and learn to make right choices. Make copies for each child and, if possible, mount on cardstock or cardboard. Have them color the game board and take it home to play with their families. ► JENNY ERICKSON

Directions: Each player chooses a different coin or button for a marker. Use a coin to toss to indicate the number of spaces to move. If it lands on heads, move ahead two spaces. If it lands on tails, move one space.
