PRESENTERS

Matt Nelson - Catholic speaker, blogger, apologist - of Shaunavon, SK shares stories and experience relating to his work with a focus on evangelizing. His sharing demonstrates our ability to focus on the 'truth' of religion and love of Catholicism and how we might continue to promote that in our communities.

Bernadette Cey, retired Religion Coordinator, shares the stories of her experience in Holy Trinity Roman Catholic School Division as a leader of Catholic studies and faith development. Bernadette has been compassionately involved in facilitating growth experiences for adults, youth and children alike.

Colm Leyne, youth ministry in the Diocese of Saskatoon, shares his stories about ministering to the generation of young Catholics that populate our schools and our communities.

Hélène Préfontaine and Mike St. Amand

Mike is a past president of the Canadian Catholic School Trustees' Association as well as the Saskatchewan Catholic School Boards Association. Hélène is a recently retired Superintendent of Education for the Prince Albert Catholic School Division who is currently enjoying her 'encore' career.
