

St. Olivier School Staff Visit Regina Food Bank

On a day dedicated to the development of faith, the staff of St. Olivier School made their way to Regina, SK for a visit to the local food bank. The intention was to lend a helping hand wherever needed. The caring adults of St. O's found themselves working alongside each other to sort and stock items for the warehouse.

While they worked, Food Bank staff shared information and statistics regarding the distribution of food for those in need. St. Olivier staff truly recognized the need for stewardship of our resources and gifts. Anyone able to provide time, talent or treasure is really make a difference for the community – perhaps in ways more than you can ever imagine.

The famous actress, Audrey Hepburn, is credited with stating, “As you grow older, you will discover you have two hands, one for helping yourself, the other for helping others.” The staff of St. Olivier School definitely used their hands to help themselves by faithfully providing service and to help others by providing the Food Bank with the gift of their time on this day. Kudos to All!
